

God has always wanted to bless the next generation. It came through Abraham (Genesis 22:15-18) then to us in Christ (Acts 2:36-40). God wants to bless your generation and all who are far off. Once saved that first generation of Christians was busy staying saved and seeing the next generation saved (Acts 2:41-47).

-Do we live in a generation that needs saved?

-We don't mind change if we see the _____ of it.

When young people experience WRCC they need to feel it is _____ church.

We must become the church that is relevant and relates to the next generation.
